

Dr. Kanu Lal Saha

MBBS, FCPS

Dr. Kanu Lal Saha is a well-known Otologist of International repute.

He is currently working as an associate professor in Otolgy Division, Department of Otolaryngology - Head and Neck Surgery, Bangabandhu Sheikh Mujib Medical University (BSMMU), Dhaka.

Dr. Saha completed his MBBS from Dhaka Medical College in 1999 and FCPS (Fellow of College of Physicians and Surgeons) in Otolaryngology in January 2007 from BCPS (Bangladesh College of Physicians and Surgeons).

He completed short term observership under world famous otologists and skull base surgeons- Prof. Mario Sanna at Gruppo Otologico, Piacenza-Rome, Italy, Prof. Robert Vincent at Causse Clinic, France, Prof. Miguel Aristegui at Hospital General Universitario Gregorio Maranon Spain, Prof. S K Kacker and Prof. MV Kirtane at India.

Dr. Saha has thirty four publications in national and international journals. He is invited as a faculty in various conferences and workshops in Bangladesh and abroad in his specialty.

Dr. Saha is a member of Cochlear Implant Programme in BSMMU and has already performed more than 100 cochlear implant surgeries.

Dr. Kanu Lal Saha is actively involved in organizing regular workshop and dissection courses on Otolgy and Skull Base Surgery with national and international faculties.